

My Family

Stories That Bring Us Together

This book belongs to:

"We discover something about ourselves
when we learn about our ancestors."

President Thomas S. Monson
The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

"Constant Truths for Changing Times,"
Ensign or Liahona, May 2005, 21

Get Started

Prepare yourself spiritually. Then follow these simple steps to feel the Spirit and have your family receive the blessings of temple ordinances.

Talk

with your family, and fill in this booklet about your ancestors and their families.

Enter

information you've collected into FamilySearch.org. If you need help, ask a family member or ward member for assistance.

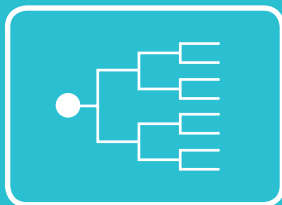

Attend

the temple on behalf of your ancestors, or ask for help.

Next Steps

Now that you have gathered stories and information about your family, you should:

Enter

information you've collected into FamilySearch.org. If you need help, ask a family member or ward member for assistance.

Attend

the temple on behalf of your ancestors, or ask for help.

Keep Going!

Find information and stories for more family members, and assist in doing their temple work.

“We especially encourage youth and young single adults to use for temple work their own family names or the names of ancestors of their ward and stake members. Priesthood leaders should assure that young people and their families learn the doctrine of turning their hearts to their fathers and the blessing of temple attendance.”
